Children's Rights Queensland

Children's Rights Queensland (CRQ) is a non-profit organisation with a rich 50-year history of promoting children's rights and supporting communities.

Our mission is to deliver a range of initiatives that raise awareness of children's needs, rights, and achievements and engage, empower, and support them and their communities. A key focus is on ensuring advocacy of children's rights under the United Nations Convention on the Rights of a Child.

CRQ convenes Children's Week in Queensland, which celebrates the right of children to enjoy childhood.

Ambassadors

Children's Rights Queensland Ambassadors are volunteers from all walks of life that share the common goal of protecting and advocating for children's rights in the community. The Ambassador role involves online and in-person engagement with children, families, and communities.

The purpose of being an Ambassadors is to:

- Advocate
- Promote
- Engage

A focus of the role is raising awareness of CRQ initiatives and promoting increased participation. Ambassadors gain access to an online portal with training, information, and resources.
